

Ramon Goomber

Ramon is currently the Business Lead, Pharmacy Solutions and Strategy at GSK where he oversees all levels of strategic pharmacy engagement and partnerships, supports scope of practice enhancement and advocacy as well as academic engagement in Canada, and provides support to GSK's operations in several other countries.

Prior to GSK he was the Senior Director, National Pharmacy Operations at McKesson Canada where he led a team of over 220 staff. Prior to McKesson, Ramon was National Director, Pharmacy at DrugSmart Pharmacy Group where he successfully managed the entire business operations including national retail and specialty pharmacy services, HR, IT, strategy, marketing, real estate and construction. At Rexall Pharmacy Group, he was Director of Specialty pharmacy responsible for the operations of highly varied specialty pharmacies across Canada with over 150 staff. As the Regional Director of Operations at Medical Pharmacies Group (now part of CareRx), he effectively managed 10-large scale long-term care pharmacies with a team of over 350 staff. In addition to his corporate career, he has also owned and operated several retail pharmacies, including a Shoppers Drug Mart franchise, an independent retail pharmacy and clinic, and a specialty pharmacy and clinic.

Continued

Ramon has a Bachelor of Science degree in Pharmacy from U of T and has been actively involved in their pharmacy program in various capacities for over 17 years. He also holds positions on the U of T Alumni committee, Admissions committee, Awards committee, and most recently, the Dean's Advisory Council. In addition, he holds a position on the Neighbourhood Pharmacy Association's advocacy and strategic communications committee.

He enjoys spending time with his wife and two children, and in his spare time, he is an avid motorsports enthusiast and former competitor.

